Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board of Directors ("Board") is responsible to ensure long term success and delivering of sustainable value to its stakeholders through its leadership and management of the Group's businesses. The Board sets the strategic direction of the Group while exercising oversight on day-to-day management and operations delegated to the Executive Directors and Key Senior Management to ensure that the conduct of the business of the Group is in compliance with relevant laws, practices, standards and guidelines applicable to the Group and that the set objectives and goals of the Group are achieved. In order to ensure orderly and effective discharge of the Board's function and responsibilities, the Board has in place an internal governance model for the Group where specific powers of the Board are delegated to the relevant Board Committees, namely the Audit, Risk Management, Nomination and Remuneration to oversee the Company's affairs, in accordance with their respective Terms of Reference. All matters deliberated in the Board Committees are required to be reported to the Board for endorsement and/or approval. As such, the direction and control of the Group is held firmly within the Board. The Board together with Key Senior Management have established various policies and procedures which provide guidance for proper standards of conduct and sound and prudent practices to be carried out or performed in the respective areas and circumstances in order to propagate and preserve the core values of the Group and to further promote good corporate governance culture within the Group. These values are disseminated to employees and continuously reinforced throughout their tenure with the Group. These policies and procedures are periodically reviewed to ensure it is relevant and effective.

	To enable the Board to discharge its responsibilities in meeting the goals and objectives of the Group, the Board deliberated, reviewed and approved the business proposals and strategic initiatives proposed by the Executive Directors and/or Key Senior Management. The Board monitored the implementation of the strategic initiatives regularly, through updates reported by the Executive Directors and/or Key Senior Management, to ensure that the Group is aligned with its objectives set. The principal responsibilities of the Executive Directors and Key Senior Management are as follows:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Developing, co-ordinating and implementing business and corporate strategies; (b) Implementing the policies and decisions of the Board; (c) Overseeing the day-to-day operations of the Group; and (d) To participate the various management committees or working committees for the effective discharge of duties and functions. The Key Senior Management assisted the Executive Directors by preparing important matters such as strategy and actions plan as well as putting them into practice. The Board reviewed and deliberated the financial results and detailed information relating to the running of the Group's operations presented by the Key Senior Management at Board meetings held during the financial period. The Board scrutinised the management proposals taking into consideration the long-term business and finance of the Group. In Board meetings, the Board was updated on the progress of the approved management proposals. The Board was updated and/or informed on any material progress that required Board's immediate attention through electronic means. The Board reviews overall performance of the management from time to time and provides leadership within a framework of prudent and effective controls which enable risks to be appropriately assessed and managed. The Risk Management Committee advises the Board on areas of high risk and the adequacy of compliance and control procedures throughout the Group. There is an on-going process in place for the Risk Management Committee to identify, evaluate, monitor and manage the significant risks in the Group's business and business environment to enable the Group to achieve its business and corporate objectives in the best possible way. Identified risks are assessed and prioritised according to their likelihood and their potential impact on the Group's operations and financial performance. The Board's responsibilities for the Group's system of internal controls cover not only financial aspects of the business but also organisational, operational, regulatory compliance as well as risk management matters. Details pertaining to the Company's internal control system and the review of its effectiveness are set out in

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company has in place its procedures and criteria for appointment of new directors. Selection of candidates to be considered for appointment as Directors is facilitated through recommendations from the Directors, management, major shareholders or external parties including the Company's contacts in related industries. All candidates for appointment are first considered by the Nomination Committee ("NC"). The final decision of the appointment of new Directors remains the responsibility of the full Board after considering the recommendations of the NC. The Company practices a clear and transparent nomination process which involves the following:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) Identification of candidates;(b) Evaluating suitability of candidates;(c) Discussion with the candidates on the proposed appointment;(d) Deliberation by the NC; and(e) Recommendation to the Board. New members are evaluated for the required mix of skills, expertise, competencies, experience, professionalism, integrity, and other qualities, before a recommendation is made by the NC to the Board. Candidates are only considered if they meet the following criteria:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) Possess a diverse range of skills, including business, legal and financial expertise, professional knowledge, financial industry experience, as well as experience in regional and international markets;(b) Demonstrates honesty and integrity;(c) Ability to be independent and capable of lateral thinking;(d) People skills;(e) Have followed the code of conduct expected by Board members; and(f) Aware of time commitment required to perform his/her duties.

	In the process of selecting and evaluating candidates for the Board, the NC also takes into consideration the overall composition of the Board and the combination skills of existing Directors as well as diversity in terms of gender, age and ethnicity. The ultimate goal is to ensure that the Board as a whole has the appropriate balance of skills, experience, independence and knowledge of the Company to enable them to discharge their respective duties and responsibilities effectively.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board has delegated to the Nominating Committee ("NC") the responsibility to establish, maintain and review the criteria to be used in the recruitment process and annual assessment of Directors, including the assessment on the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, the performance of each individual Director and the Board Committees, including tenure of each independent director, the term of office, re-election of directors and performance of the Audit Committee, Risk Management Committee, Remuneration Committee and its members on an annual basis. All assessments and evaluations carried out by the NC in the discharge of all its functions are properly documented. The evaluation process was led by the Chairman of the NC with the assistance of the Company Secretary. All directors attend General Meetings. The Chair of the Audit, Nominating, Risk Management and other committees provide meaningful response to questions addressed to them.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board’s members had attended the following general meetings held during the financial year ended 30 June 2023 except for Datin Seri Azreen Bin Abu Noh of whom has extended her apologies to the shareholders for not attending the Company’s Twenty Eighth AGM held on 29 November 2022:-
		Date	Meeting
		29 November 2022	Twenty Eighth Annual General Meeting (“AGM”)
		The Chairman encouraged shareholders’ active participation during AGM by giving sufficient time to the floor during the question and answer session. The Chair of respective Committees are fully aware of their respective scope of responsibilities and they are prepared to address and provide relevant answers to any question that the shareholders may raise which fall under the purview of the Committees. The shareholders and proxy holders can rely on real time submission of typed text to exercise their rights to speak or communicate in a virtual meeting by submitting questions in relation to the agenda items into the text box. The Chairman, Executive Directors, and Chief Operating Officer were in attendance to respond to the shareholders’ queries.
Explanation for departure	:	All Directors have always been committed to attend the AGM. However, Datin Seri Azreen Bin Abu Noh was unable to attend Company’s AGM held on 29 November 2022 as she had to attend to an ad hoc matter which was unavoidable. She extended his apologies to the shareholders.
